Founder President's Message

Prof. Manish R Mundada

As we move on from century of specialization and techniques to century of connectivity and relationship along with every other profession and institution in our society management education is also being asked to justify its usefulness to society.

"Innovate or perish, invent and cherish" has become the most frequently chanted mantra in the corporate world today. Be dynamic or die, is clear and simple call of time. In the light of globalization of Indian economy and capitulation of Indian brands, it is imperative for future leaders to be aware of ground realities so that they can face with confidence the emerging global challenges of international markets. In pursuit of excellence our purpose is to practice management education, research and science. Our faculty and research, teaching and service reflect core assets of IIMSPUNE. Our primary purpose is to enhance the professional life of students and through them improve the organizations they lead. I am glad to see excellent articles, Poems, Stories etc. from the Students and Faculty.

Glimpse of Tirupati: Kaliyuga Vaikuntam

During corona all were very frustrated staying at home 24/7. It was same with us i.e me and my cousins. So, all of sudden one-night we cousins decided to travel after a long time, to a peaceful, heavenly and the most religious place in India, i.e Tirupati. Tirupati is a city in the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh. Its Sri Venkateshwara Swamy Temple sits atop one of the 7 peaks of Tirumala Hills, attracting scores of Hindu pilgrims. The deity is also known as Balaji in some states.

we booked all our train tickets, darshan tickets, accommodation, packed our luggage and was ready to travel. We all cousins met at Solapur Railway Station and started our destination to Tirupati. Morning @8 AM we reached at Renigunta Station. From there we hired an auto and travelled to Tirupati which is 20mins far from there, booked a room and got fresh to climb the 7 hills of Sri Venkateshwara Swamy to reach to Tirumala, the 7 hills named as- Seshadri, Neeladri, Garudadri, Anjanadri, Vrushabhadri, Narayanadri, and Venkatadri. So, we went to Alipiri dropped our luggage at luggage center which is a free service form TTD and started our journey to Tirumala. It has 3550 steps that is 9 km. So, we started our first step by chanting his name as 'Govinda Govinda'. On the way there were many snacks' stalls, first aid kit. We met many people who showed their devotion towards the lord by applying Haldi Kumkum to every step while climbing, or by lighting camphor or diya as per their way of saying thank you to the Lord Venkateshwara Swamy for all the good he did.

There were also few temples on the way which depicts the 10 avatars of Lord Vishnu. As mentioned above, on the Anjanadri Hill there is a huge statue of Lord Hanuman everyone were worshipping there and took some rest. Moving ahead there were many deer, monkeys, squirrels, sambars, and many more animals. Even the beauty of nature was spectaculars, where we clicked many memorable photos. Then comes the toughest part of hill known as Mokala Mettu which means steps which are climbed with knees. As mentioned above many opt different way to say thank you, and this is one of them i.e. climbing the Mokala Mettu.

After reaching we collected our luggage and moved towards our room, dropped our bags, and moved to Kalyan Katta where we offered our hair. Post that we had bath, got ready with traditional south Indian attire and went to the most awaited moment i.e. to Swamy's darshan. It is often said that before Venkateshwara Swamy's darshan we should take Varala Swamy's darshan. So we went to Varala Swamy temple, took blessings, put the offerings in hundi and went to Venkateshwara Swamy's darshan. We joined the que and was waiting for 2 hrs. The statue of the lord was so beautifully decorated with flowers and garlands that we fell shortage of eyes to see his mesmerizing beauty. Those 10 to 20 secs were like living in heaven, it was such an emotional moment that I feel short of words while writing this blog. Post darshan we went to the hundi to offer our offerings. The reason behind the offering is that Lord Venkateshwara Swamy repays his loan taken by Lord Kuber.

Post this devotional moment we went to Anaprasad Hall where we had a delicious dinner that is offered by the TTD for free to all the devotees. After that we went to collect our ladoos from ladoo counter. It was 12 AM to done with all these. We visited - Silathoranam - It an important landmark in archaeology and heritage. This is a natural rock formation by a single rock. Japili Hanuman- is situated amidst dense forests. It is believed that Lord Hanuman used to visit the location often to quiet his kind and soak in peace. Papavinasam - is a sacred attraction in the region. Taking a dip in the holy waters of the teertham is considered to absolve one of their sins. The attraction also is famous for its scenic beauty. Srivari Padalu- Situated on top of Narayangiri Hill amidst beautiful scenery, Srivari Padalu is believed to be the place where Lord Narayan first set his foot on earth.

The next morning, we went to Tirupati by bus enjoying the scenic beauty of the nature. Reaching there we went to Sri Padmavathi Ammavari Temple - Goddess Padmavati is the wife of Sri Venkateshwara Swam. Sri Govindarajaswami Temple - The presiding deity is Lord Vishnu, also called Govindarajaswami. ISKCON Tirupati- It is one of the most famous pilgrimages in the city. It has idol of RadhaKrishna with Gopika.

There are many such places to visit for pilgrims. After all these we reached railway station to travel back to Solapur with lot of blessings and memories.

Impact of chocolates to girls during menstruation days:

First, it's important to know that chocolate, especially dark chocolate, contains something called flavonoids. These are natural compounds found in many fruits and vegetables that have been linked to various health benefits. Some studies suggest that flavonoids in chocolate might help improve blood flow to the brain, which could potentially enhance cognitive functions like memory and mood.

Now, let's focus on menstruating individuals. During menstruation, some women experience symptoms like mood swings, cravings, and fatigue. While chocolate is often a popular choice for satisfying cravings, its impact on menstrual symptoms is not entirely clear.

Some research indicates that eating chocolate during menstruation might provide some temporary relief from menstrual pain due to its fat and sugar content, which can trigger the release of endorphins (the body's natural painkillers). However, it's essential to consume chocolate in moderation since it can be high in calories, sugar, and fat, which may contribute to weight gain and other health issues if consumed excessively.

Moreover, there is limited evidence suggesting that certain compounds in chocolate, such as magnesium, might help reduce symptoms like bloating and breast tenderness. However, the concentrations of these compounds in chocolate are typically not high enough to make a significant difference.

It's also important to note that some women might be more sensitive to the effects of chocolate and experience stronger cravings or mood swings due to hormonal fluctuations during menstruation. In these cases, it's a good idea to enjoy chocolate in moderation and combine it with other healthy habits like exercise, sufficient sleep, and a balanced diet.

To sum up, while chocolate can provide some temporary relief from menstrual pain due to its fat and sugar content, its impact on menstrual symptoms is generally limited.

Men and Mental Health: Breaking The Silence Of Struggles

while acknowledging the joy of being a son and father, we must also confront the harsh reality surrounding men's mental health.

For too long, Whisper of "man up" and societal Expectations of stoicism have the silenced the conversations about the men's mental health. Yet, the stark reality is this: men die by suicide at twice the rate of women, with nearly 80% of US suicide being men.

A Crisis cloaked in silence:

The alarming suicide statistics paint a grim picture. Men, expected to be pillars of strength, often internalize their struggle, leading to isolation and despair, Stigma plays a villainous role as weakness deterring men from seeking help. This fear extends beyond support.

Many factors contribute to crisis of silence:

Men mask their struggle, fearing judgement and losing their perceived "MANLINESS". Rural areas and financial limitations often restrict access to traditional therapy setting.

Many men Lack knowledge about the mental health, making them feel confused and helpless.

Breaking The Silence of chain:

spend time with people who make men feel good, talking more, normalising open discussions about sharing experience and challenges. Add more activity day. Do more what makes men feel happy and content.

we can empowerment men to prioritize their mental health.

Remember, strength lies not in silence, but in seeking help and breaking the chain of Stigma

Letter Later?

In today's swift communication oriented world, it takes us even less than a fraction of second to convey the feelings, thoughts, information, sometimes suggestions, and expressions effortlessly. We are so hinged to all these quick to set up modes of communication, we've forgotten the approaches we used earlier, or maybe our parents did.

Just before leaving my hometown, I went through some piled up papers. While asking about it to my mum, she opined, those were not only the papers, but an essence of memories. Those papers were tinted with the emotions of longing. For her, just seeing them, is a nostalgia of years of journey she had been on.

Those papers were the mail. Not the boring, we formatted emails, but the letters that have the fragrance of reminiscence. When I read a few of them, I realized what we lack in the quick modes of communication we prefer. It's the humane touch. It's the ticket to the past. It's the ticket to the past. It's the ocean of expressions that we fail to leave the shore of.

All the letters were so warm even after years. I couldn't help but lose myself in the notions. That state reminded me of Class 7. I learnt a lesson by Aruna Dhere, where she elaborated a heart-wrenching story. A careless young guy was reluctantly following his postman father. He was supposed to take over his dad's job.

After visiting and posting mails to a couple of people, the postman brought his son to an old shack where an old lady used to live. The postman told his son that he needs to go there every week. He then pulled a letter out of his bag and handed that over to the old lady.

The old lady welcomed them hastily and took that letter. She kissed it, felt it, sniffed it and then gave it back to the postman. The postman read it out loud. A sudden roller coaster of emotions went through the old lady's heart and reflected upon her face in the form of tears and a melancholic smile appeared on her face. She thanked the postman and went back to her chores.

The uninterested son was now curious. After they came out of her shack, he asked his father, "Dad, the letter was empty! Why would you lie to that old blind lady?" The postman answered, "Her son was a soldier. Now martyr on the border! It's been years, she has been longing, yearning and waiting for him to come back! That poor lady is unaware of the fact that he would never return! I just read some hollow words to ask her whereabouts and she keeps on surviving on that hope!"

These words sank the son's heart and he then willingly took the job of sending the mails with love, longing and some hollow false hope. If it was for today's cyber secured era, the mail would have been reported as spam! Maybe the old lady would have already known about her son and must have lost the hope to live further! Definitely, those spam letters didn't help that lady to lead a better life, but it gave her hope! One thing, that can move the mountains! Let us all write letters to our near and dear ones, to show our love off and make it lasting as they aren't dependent upon any spam mailbox and lost data memory!

प्यार....

कुछ इस तरह मैंने खुदको बर्बाद किया,
सफर में हमसफर को जो तलाश किया,
कागज पे जो तेरा नाम लिख कर,
मैंने अपनी मोहब्बत का इकरार किया,
हा सचमे मैंने तुझसे,
तेरी इज्जत से प्यार किया ।

क्यूं नहीं..

रातों जग कर चाँद को ढूँढता हूँ, पर कभी दिखाई नहीं पडता होता अक्सर आसमान में ही है, फिर भी नजर क्यों नहीं पडत थक हार कर में सो जाता हूँ, क्या इस से भी उसे फरक नहीं पडता अगर पड़ता ही है, तो मुझे क्यों दिखाई नहीं पडता

लोग कहते है मेरी अच्छाइयाँ मुझे मार देगी दिखाई तो मुझे भी सब देता है, पर इसका मुझे क्यों नहीं फरक पडता !

मंजिल अगर दूर हैं, तो सफ़र जरूर करेंगे हम।

जिस हाल मे जीना मुश्किल हैं उस हाल में मोहब्बत जरूर करेंगे हम।

मेरे दिल मे जो बातें बंद हैं, फकत लम्हों मे बंद नहीं हो पाएंगे और जो मेरे दिल मे दर्द हैं वो मुझसे बया नहीं हो पाएंगे और तुम कितनी भी कोशिश क्यों ना करलो हम तुझसे जुदा नही हो पाएंगे।

सफर

जाने वो कैसे लोग थे जो मेरे हमराह खड़े थे।

मैं उदास खड़ा था वो हैरान खड़े थे।

सफर की धूल थी या चहरे पे कुछ दाग था।

मैं अकेला खड़ा था वो साथ होकर भी परेशान खड़े थे।

मोहब्बत...

तेरी मोहब्बत में, मे बडा बेहिसाब था, और मुझे सिर्फ तुझसे तेरी जात से प्यार था।

और मुझे मेहेज तेरा इंतजार था, और कुछ तुम भी तो कहो क्या तुम्हे सचमें मुझसे प्यार था।

तुझे तो पता था मुझे क्या ही पाना था, मुझे तो हर हाल में तुझे पाना था।

मेरा रोना तो बस एक बहाना था, असल में मुझे मेरा गम भुलाना था,

और तुझे सिर्फ ये बताना था।

मुझे अपनी सारी जिदंगी तेरे संग बिताना था और तु तो मेरी पहली मोहब्बत थी मुझे तो हर हाल मे निभाना था, अगर तुझे हार ही जाना था तो पहले ना बताना था, दो पल ही सही तूने मुझे छोड़कर नहीं जाना था ओर मुझे इस तरह नही सताना था।

मुमकिन...

मुमकिन हो नहीं सकता कि ये मुमकिन है,
कि ज़िन्दगी में सिर्फ पहली मोहब्बत मुमकिन है।
माना कि पहली मोहब्बत लाजवाबी होती है
और पहली पहली मोहब्बत पहली मोहब्बत होती है,
मगर मोहब्बत एक चुनाव है जो जिसे चुन ले,
तो ऐसी मोहब्बत में भी शिद्दत होती है।
और इसमें पहले ज़्यादा होती है। और हम जो प्यासे थे तो उसने
मुझे सिर्फ पानी नहीं पिलाया, मेरे हर दर्द में मुझे उसने मरहम पट्टी
लगाई और ज़ख्म सूखे जाने के बाद जो उसने मुझे शेर सुनाया।
और जो उसके बाद मैंने जो मुस्कराया, तो उसने मुझे गले से
लगाया। और उस से मैंने जो पूछा, "अकेले पन में क्या हाल था?"
तो उसने मुझे बताया, "बिना ग़म के तो कभी नहीं था मेरा
ज़माना।" खैर, जो रात बहुत हो चुकी है, तो नींद का वास्ता देकर
उसने मुझे अपने काँधे तले सहारा देकर और मुझे मेरे बिस्तर पर
सुलाया। और सोने से पहले उसने मुझे बताया, "तुम सो जाओ, मैं
अभी पानी पी के आया।" और जो पागल सा लड़का मुझे देख कर
दिल ही दिल में मुस्कराया, तो मैंने भी उसकी बात को मान लिया
और नींद के आघोश में आकर ख्वाब में मैंने उसे पाया। और जब
मैं नींद से बहर होकर उठी, तो मैंने खुद को तन्या पाया और उसके
बाद उसकी याद ने मुझे बड़ा रुलावा हा, ये सच है कि इसी वजह
से मैंने बहुत कम मुस्कराया।

एक ख़्वाब की तरह

मैं पढ़ता रहा तुझे किसी किताब की तरह,, जैसे सवालों के बीच किसी जवाब की तरह,,

यूं तो नशे सारे करके देख लिए मैंने,, एक तू ही चढ़ती रही पुरानी शराब की तरह,,

लिख के मिटा के जोड़ घटा के सब करके देख लिया,, मगर तू मिलती नहीं कभी मेरे हिसाब की तरह,,

सोचता रहा मैं बार बार रातों को जाग कर,, क्या तू कभी होगी मुकम्मल एक ख़्वाब की तरह,, कितना हसीन सपना है मैं बैठा हूं आंगन में,, तू झांक रही है छत से इक आफ़ताब की तरह,, मालूम है मुझे कि तू अब कहीं नहीं है,, मगर काश तू मिल जाए किसी किताब में एक गुलाब की तरह...

पहाट

पहाटेच्या त्या सोनेरी धुंदिमध्ये मी कसा हरवुन गेलो
सोनेरी त्या तेजामध्ये मी कसा गुंफून गेलो.
विहंगाना मी पाहिले मनमुराद उडताना
माझ्या बालपणीची आठवण झाली त्यांना बघताना.
डोंगराच्या पलीकडे हिरण्यगर्भ कसे लपले होते,
हळू-हळू वर येताना कुशीत त्यांनी निसर्गा घेतले होते.
वृक्ष्यांच्या त्या सोनेरी पांनाना मी पाहिले कसे,
माझ्या अंतरातील रंगांना मी उजळून टाकले कसे.
तटस्थ उभा होतो मी त्या तेजोमय पाण्याच्या
नदीकिनारी,
माझ्या मनातील स्वप्नांना वाव मिळत होता त्या कोकण

मानवाने लावला जेव्हा गतीचा शोध
यातूनच झाला सर्वांना गतीचा बोध.

गतीमुळे मानवाच्या जीवनाला आला वेग
